PREFATORY NOTE

The General Index for the 1970 Michigan Compiled Laws was prepared by Aspen Systems Corporation. This Index contains entries for Michigan laws of a general and permanent nature enacted through December, 1970. The Index to the Constitution of 1963 follows the text of the Constitution in Volume I. The Uniform Commercial Code is indexed both in the General Index and following the text of the Code in Volume IV.

In the preparation of the General Index, the style, format, and a substantial number of entries and main headings appearing in the Index to the Compiled Laws of 1948 have been retained whenever practical. Legislative enactments since 1948 have necessitated the addition of many new entries and main headings and the deletion of entries and main headings relating to repealed statutes. Cross references have been used extensively throughout the General Index to aid the user and to minimize unnecessary repetition of entries.

State agencies and some local governmental subdivisions have undergone important organizational changes since the publication of the Compiled Laws of 1948. Where governmental units have been transferred, names changed, or powers and duties reassigned, the Index entries reflect the language of the Compiled Laws section. References to the most recent names of the governmental units have been provided wherever possible. Since the language in the Compiled Laws section may not coincide with the current name of a governmental unit, the substantive activity of the unit has been indexed under a substantive main heading as an added aid to the Index user.

In compiling the General Index, substantial use of computers was made by Aspen Systems Corporation to identify Compiled Laws sections relevant to main headings, to sort manually-prepared entries into proper alphabetic sequence, to edit the index, and to verify cross references. Computerized typesetting was accomplished directly from magnetic tapes. This new approach in formulating an index has resulted in a more detailed and comprehensive General Index than is found in similar legal publications.
